

AELP Network Membership Offer | 15% Saving

The Association of Employment and Learning Providers (AELP) is a national trade association, representing the interest of a range of organisations delivering vocational learning, sustainable employment and employability support. AELP supports the work of the local provider networks, ensuring a clear link between local and national policy and a voice for providers of all sizes. With 800+ members, including independent training providers, employers and colleges, AELP offers unparalleled access to those delivering skills and employment training across the country.

Our aim is to work with providers and their local networks to ensure their voice is heard nationally and to provide information and support from a national perspective to support regional activities, e.g. local area review and devolution.
